The Big Cheese! Kambouris’ Panoramic of Manhattan’s Top Five

Pizza has been very good toimmunoss John Kambouris. The 67-year-old Greek immi-nigrante to be able to buy a slice of the American pie with his dough and sauce. He has opened his own business, Kambouris’ Pizza, and has worked hard to make it a success.

And last week, his Dazzler Frontier pizza pizzas received an honor that most New York pizza lovers would kill for. Kambouris’ Pizza was named among the top five in New York City by the New York Post in its annual “Top Pizza” issue. The magazine’s editors praised the Dazzler Frontier as “the perfect wood-fired pizza in New York City.”

Kambouris, who opened his restaurant in 1985, says he is “very happy” with the honor. “It’s been a dream of ours for a long time,” he says. “We’ve worked hard to make it happen.”

Kambouris says he plans to use the honor to promote his restaurant even further. “We’ve been looking to do more marketing,” he says. “We want to let people know how good our pizza is.”

For the moment, Kambouris is just enjoying the accolades. “It’s been a long time coming,” he says. “I’m just happy to be part of this.”

Eleni Tsigaridas cares her last name’s picture. She and Columbus Greek Studies program coordinator Stefanos Tsigaridas Memorial Fund. She has been vocal about the program’s mission and her support for the program’s goals. She is grateful for the opportunity to give back to a cause she cares about. She says it is important to support the program because it helps students pursue their academic and professional goals.

Memorial Fund for Stefanos Tsigaridas, Columbus Prov. Killed in 2010

By Constantine S. Tsigaridas

COLUMBUS, Ohio - The Program in Hellenic Studies, Department of Classics of the Greek Language and Literature in the College of Humanities, and the Department of Classics of the Greek Language and Literature in the College of Humanities, have established a memorial fund in memory of Stefanos Tsigaridas, a former student, to honor his memory. The fund will be used to support the program’s mission and goals.

Tsigaridas, who graduated from the program in 2010, was passionate about Greek language and culture. He was a member of the Greek Studies program and a member of the Illinois Hellenic Studies program. He was also a member of the Illinois Hellenic Studies program.

Tsigaridas died in a car crash in Illinois in 2010. He was 23 years old.

The Tsigaridas Memorial Fund will be used to support the program’s mission and goals. The fund will be administered by the Department of Classics of the Greek Language and Literature in the College of Humanities.
